

Top New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc

Voted by Cuisine Magazine
[January 2015 Edition]

Domain Road Vineyard Sauvignon Blanc 2013

The sauvignon blanc crown has vacated "Blenheim Palace" and headed south to Central Otago. Pulling off the coup was this irresistible, mouthfilling Bannockburn wine with its beguiling floral scents and purity of fruit. "It's like biting into a sauvignon blanc grape," noted Jeff Clarke. A touch of honeysuckle-like sweetness is balanced by keen acidity. It is a generous, flowing wine that would be a fine match for whitebait fritters.

